

BONAPARTE'S FAREWELL.

Air : Captain O'Kean.

Farewell to the land, where the gloom of my glory
Arose and o'ersadow'd the earth with her name !
She abandons me now --- but the page of her story,
The brightest or blackest, is fill'd with my fame ;
I have war'd with a world which vanquished me only
When the meteor of conquest allured me too far ;
I have coped with the nations which dread me thus lonely,
The last single captive to millions in war !

Farewell to thee, France ! --- When thy diadem crown'd me,
I made thee the gem and the wonder of earth ! ---
But thy weakness decrees I should leave as I found thee,
Decay'd in thy glory and sunk in thy worth !
Oh ! for the veteran hearts that were wasted
In strife with the storm, when their battles were won ---
Then the Eagle, whose gaze in that moment was blasted,
Had still soar'd with eyes fixed on Victory's sun !

Farewell to thee, France ! --- but when Liberty rallies
Once more in thy regions, remember me then ---
The violet grows in the depth of thy valleys :
Though withered, thy tears will unfold it again ;
Yet, yet, I may baffle the hosts that surround me,
And yet may thy heart leap awake to my voice ! ---
They are links which must break in the chain that has bound us ;
Then turn thee, and call on the Chief of thy choice !
